Golf Scholarship	For many, golf is more than a leisurely pastime. It challenges players, helps them to develop critical thinking skills and gets them outside and moving. It's seemingly a simple game, yet requires focus and technique to truly master the sport. And beyond the game itself, it brings together players from all different backgrounds and walks of life to create a community and network of people who can turn to each other when needed. To celebrate the game of golf and those that play it, the Scholarship for Golfers will award a student that plays the game in any capacity, either for their school or simply as a pastime. Students of any educational level are eligible to apply if they play golf in some capacity. To apply, write about your golf journey, including how you started playing, how you continue to play and why golf is important to you.

Bick Vocational Trade School Scholarship	Too often, vocational or trade paths are overlooked or undervalued, even though they are the backbone of our communities. Electricians, mechanics, medical technicians, welders, carpenters, and countless other skilled professionals make the world function, and these careers deserve just as much respect and support as any college degree. Many vocational students come from backgrounds where opportunity hasn't always come easily. Financial hardship, family responsibilities, or a lack of support can make continuing education feel out of reach. But making the choice to invest in the future, learn a trade, gain a skill, and contribute to the world is something powerful and worth encouraging. This scholarship seeks to support students who are pursuing vocational or trade education in order to build their futures.

Nuclear Family Scholarship	If you are a student who has had your life shaped significantly by a family member, such as a parent or sibling, we want to hear about it! Our team at The Law Office of David E. Gordon & Elissa M. Coombs is thrilled to offer the 2027 Nuclear Family Scholarship, which allows students to share how a member of their immediate family has shaped them into who they are today. As a law firm that strives to treat each client we help as if they're family, we understand how important the effect of having family in your life can be. That's why we wanted to use this scholarship to get students to think about how their family has shaped them into the person they are today. It is easy to take family for granted, so we hope this scholarship will help students who are going through life-defining experiences in college to reflect on their past relationships and to continue shaping themselves into well-rounded young adults.

Jeffrey Lichtman Community Service Scholarship	For nearly three decades, defense attorney Jeffrey Lichtman has worked tirelessly to provide quality legal services to those in his community and beyond. Throughout his time working in the criminal justice system, it has become increasingly clear that there are many ills that our society faces, ranging from economic hardship to substance abuse epidemics. Yet within each community, there exists a group of individuals who go above and beyond in their efforts to combat such ills and eradicate them through initiatives that ignite progress and hope for a better tomorrow. In an effort to recognize these individuals, we are offering the Law Offices of Jeffrey Lichtman Community Service Scholarship. The purpose of this scholarship is to honor a student who has made a significant effort to better their community in some specific way, meaning they saw a problem and took the initiative to try to mend it. The Law Offices of Jeffrey Lichtman is proud to work with community members passionate about laying the groundwork for a brighter future. We look forward to awarding a deserving student for their meaningful work.

Life Lessons Scholarship Program Life Happens. A NAIFA Community	A college education is already a major financial challenge for most American families, but it becomes infinitely more difficult for a student when a parent dies, leaving little or no life insurance. Life insurance is an important financial safety net that parents can leave their families. Unfortunately more than 100 million Americans don't have life insurance, and most with coverage have far less than recommended. Recognizing the character and perseverance that so many young people show in the face of such adversity, Life Happens sponsors the annual Life Lessons Scholarship Program for college students and college-bound high school seniors. Qualified entrants who submit essays or videos about how the death of a parent impacted their lives are eligible for scholarship money.
Louie Family Foundation Scholarships	The Kim and Harold Louie Family Foundation (the Foundation) anticipates awarding approximately $100,000 in scholarships in 2026. Unboxing Your Life Scholarship	Sttark is excited to award a $3,000 scholarship to a U.S. high school senior, undergraduate, or graduate student who is willing to open up and unbox their life in a creative 5-minute video. Packaging is enticing–it creates an impression on the customer–but it's the contents of a box that keep people coming back. We know there's much more to you than meets the eye, and your presentation is just a reflection of who you are. If you were a carton or box, what would your packaging say? How would you brand yourself? And, most importantly, what story would your box contain? Show us the contents of your life that make you who you truly are. Video Prompt "This Is Who I Am: Unboxing My Life" On the shelf, the folding carton or box is what first grabs attention, but the unboxing reveals a lot more about the product. The same is true with people. Packaging can promote personality, but contents reveal character and tell a story.
