THE ANNUAL CHRISTMAS BANQUET

It's almost time for the annual production put on by Lois Faber and her drama, orchestra, and choir students called the Christmas Banquet. The EskDale High School has put a lot of effort in this year's Banquet, and we're very thankful for that.

While the performance itself is a nice experience on its own, it's completely different from the perspective of the actor. That being said, we asked some of the people who worked on this production to answer some questions about their experiences behind the curtain, and here are some of their responses!

Q: What was your favorite thing to do behind the scenes/during rehearsal?

Alexa Crouch: It was fun to take the costumes they keep down there and do random things with them.

Lois Faber: Getting everybody to play their role realistically.

Emma Baker: I like to play with the props and make faces at Blake 'cause he makes weird faces at me.

Ava Hamilton: I like to play the peacock fans. And basically just wait until I come on again.

Q: What was your least favorite part of the play?

Alexa: The costumes, Crystal is the best, though.

Emma: Probably trying not to sneeze into my mic.

Ava: Ugh, costume changes are the worst.

Q: What was the funniest thing that happened behind the scenes/during rehearsal?

Alexa: Nesty (Ernesto A) wiping out.

Lois: Trying to get Ernesto A and Ava to do the last kiss without actually kissing.

Ava: Uhmhm trying to kiss Justin without laughing and dying of embarrassment.

Emma: The funniest thing to watch was Ava being Lacie and having to act all flirty and then immediately looking like she hated the scene once she was backstage.

Q: What was the most difficult part of making the production?

Alexa: Getting people who couldn't focus to focus.

Lois: The time constraints and not having enough time to practice.

Emma: Probably trying to get into character for myself.

Ava: *Remembering the queue cards. *awkward laugh**

Q: What was the most stressful thing about your part?

Alexa: Knowing when to come in on time.

Emma: I have to act in front of a bunch of people.

Ava: Trying to flirt with Justin and make it look natural even though it feels completely unnatural.

Well that's it, folks! We here at EskDale High School would like to personally thank all of the people who helped us out at all in this production, including the making of the set, the people who helped out with the orchestra and choir numbers, and the people who helped order, make, and serve the delicious meal prepared. And also many thanks to you, the audience, for supporting the EskDale High School by coming to the Annual Christmas Banquet. ♡

BANQUET STRESS

This year's Christmas Banquet has been a very stressful time of the year. Maybe it's feeling like we need more time, maybe it's memorizing our lines, or maybe it's the orchestra, but to be honest it's probably a bit of everything.

I haven't ever really been a big fan of the banquets but only because of the play part. It's all really fun when you're practicing, but then when the performance actually comes around it gets stressful.

In this year's play I am the audio engineer back inside the sound booth, and I have to take care of my lines and all the sound effects and songs, basically taking over part of Lois' job. A lot of pressure is put on me, and I could mess everything up really easily.

All I can do is hope for the best. Everything usually turns out, and a lot of people say it's fun. Still, as expected, it's very stressful and nerve-wracking. The orchestra sounds pretty good, but it really depends on the day. Some days it sounds really, really bad, Some days it actually sounds pretty good. I think it's all about your mood and how confident you are. ♡

COLLEGE TOURS WITH COLTON

This quarter, EskDale's Seniors and Juniors took two college tour trips, one to the UofU, and one to SUU and Southwest Tech. We took these trips to take a brief look at the classes that are taken and how the campuses look.

showed us the business building which was most intriguing to Yudnely and me (Diego). The Library was a pretty cool area, especially being able to see the football game from the enormous Football Stadium

On November 10th, Mary Weight drove us, and we left EskDale around 7am, met up with our school counselor Colton Griffiths in Delta, and from there we left for the University of Utah, with some car karaoke obviously.

After making it there, some of our thoughts were "this school is too big!" We had our tour which was a 5 mile walk around the entire campus, and it was pretty cool (some of us thought). This school is very good for if you're going into medicine. But they also

TV. This was an awesome first experience visiting the UofU.

Now for the second trip, on December 8th, we went to both SUU and the Southwest Tech college and the size was a lot smaller, especially Southwest Tech. SUU seemed to be most comfortable to most of us. One thing that got us most interested about this school was the ghost who got murdered from her boyfriend and since has been haunting the school since it was built. This school was pretty great!

After, we went to Southwest Tech, a very small college and a perfect size for Adolfo and Diego. They have classes that were intriguing to most of us. This school consisted of 3 buildings: a firefighter building, mechanic and business, and then the nursing/robotics building.

All of these colleges/universities were an awesome experience. Plus, Colton will be taking us on another college tour of Snow College some time in January.

Q: For the campus and population size, which school seemed most comfortable to you?

Burklie: SUU

Yudnely: UofU

Adolfo: Southwest Tech

Larissa: SUU

Q: For the classes offered, which class were most intriguing to you out of these schools?

B: I don't know

Y: The UofU business classes

A: mechanic from Southwest Tech

L: nursing part from Southwest Tech ◇

DECEMBER KINDNESS CHALLENGE

This December we've had a schoolwide challenge. It's a kindness challenge. Every day of the month of December, we've had a small challenge to do, e.g. say a joke to someone, or teach someone something new.

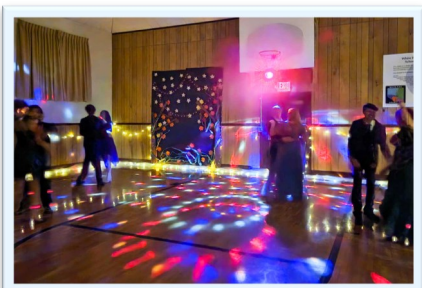

This "Do Good December" challenge is a good way to get all of the kids in the school to go out of their way to do kind things and to think of others.

We've also done something called "Affirmation Ornaments." These are little laminated paper ornaments on the walls that have positive things on each of them. All of the students filled out at least 3 positive things about each student and about the school in general. There were some really good things said about everyone, and we all had a good time writing about each other. ◇

FALL DANCE

This year our first dance was November 4, 2022. The theme was Enchanted Forest, and it was held in Baker Hall. There was lots of good food, and most people actually danced. Our chaperones were Mary and Johnny Weight, Teresa Conrad, and Donnie Crouch, plus a few other parents dropped by throughout the evening.

We had quite a few couples this year, and they were: Ernesto A and Larissa, Tayvin and I, Diego and Alexa, Blake and Yudnely, Matthew and Burklie, Emma and Katelyn, and Adolfo brought Maddie for a little while.

Here is what some people thought of the dance:

Blake: it was fine

Katelyn: I had a good time

Emma: you could feel the awkwardness wafting off people, but it was really fun

Tayvin: hmm, interesting. And fun

Alexa: it was really fun and really pretty, and the music was vibin'

Diego: it was really fun. I enjoyed it.

Yudnely: it was fun, but there was too much drama. I also loved the hot cocoa. and I 10 out of 10 recommend the hot cocoa.

Larissa: it was fun. I thought it was good.

Burklie: it was good

Matthew: it was fun

Ernesto A: it was good

I also thought the dance was pretty fun, and I definitely hope we have another dance later this school year. ◇

BAKER & GARRISON CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

EskDale High School isn't the only school in Snake Valley that does Christmas plays! Baker and Garrison Elementary Schools also have a joint annual Christmas program that delights the valley each year.

This year's Christmas program will be on Monday, December 19th at 6:30/7:30 PM PST/MST. It will be held at Baker Hall. The Baker program is named North Pole Musical and the Garrison program is named Three Plays within a Play. There will also be a Christmas medley played by the Baker School music students.

A dessert potluck follows the performances, and there will also be an exciting surprise visitor who may or may not be dressed in velvety red and white. ◇

SECRET SANTA PARTY

Every year for at least 5 years, the EskDale High School student council has thrown a Secret Santa party. Secret Santa is a game where Sharon picks people's names out of a digital hat, and then tells each person who was picked for them to get a present for. .

In the study hall, we have a poster with our names on it. Under our names, we can write some of the things that we want our secret person to buy for us. Some items people wanted were blankets, stuffed animals, Bugattis, and Rolex watches.

The rules for Secret Santa are no gift cards, you have to spend over $20.00, and no used or giftaged items.

On December 20th, we are having a school holiday party and dessert potluck, where we will reveal who we got for Secret Santa, and what we got for them.

I am certain that we students will have fun at the party. Secret Santa is a fun Christmas-time game to play and a great way to get excited about the holidays. You can play with family, friends, or pretty much anyone! Everyone has a choice if they want to be involved in the gift exchange, so no one has to buy or receive a gift if they chose not to participate. Most of the students decided to though. Giving and receiving gifts is an active way to participate in the Christmas spirit!

The holiday party will also help students get through the stressful, but fun to do banquet by looking forward to an event. Everyone has been looking at the list and thinking about what to get the person picked for them, and what they will get from their Secret Santa! The whole school would like to thank the student council and Sharon for making this awesome event possible. ◇

CARE CENTER

Every year the EskDale High School choir goes and sings for the people in the Millard Care and Rehabilitation Center in Delta, Utah. Lois Faber our choir teacher will be taking us again this year on December 21st. This is our last half day before winter break, and we will be leaving from the high school by 8:00, and we are going to try to get back around 1:00. Lois has us learn a couple of choral Christmas songs, and then we also have some students who perform some solos.

We are glad to go to the care center and sing songs for them. It is really nice that they are letting us go and sing for them. This year we are all excited to go and perform. It is going to be so much fun.

We have so much fun singing for them and after we are done, we are going to head to the district office and have some pizza and talk for a bit. Then we are going to go back on the bus and head home. This year is going to be so much fun and we can't wait until we go and sing for them. ◇

THANKSGIVING BREAK RECAP

Happy holidays folks! EskDale High School was just on Thanksgiving break a few short weeks ago! It was from November 23-27.

We students were all very excited to see and spend time with our families and friends. We were all doing a variety of different things this break. Some kids traveled with their families; some stayed home and relaxed. Either way, it was really nice to have some down time! I've gone around and asked a few people what they were up to this Thanksgiving break!

Q. What did you do for your thanksgiving break? And what was your favorite part?

Matthew: Our flight got delayed 17 hours. Then we flew into Indianapolis, and then flew into Bloomington, Illinois, to spend time with our family. My favorite thing was going to a climbing gym.

Charlie: Well, I just sat in my room and didn't contribute to society.

Adolfo: We went to Puerto Rico. My favorite part was eating food.

Ernesto D: I played a lot of games.

Those were some of the things that the students did over Thanksgiving break this year. Going places or not, everyone enjoyed having a nice, brief break from school! ◇

NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS FOR 2023

It's almost time to celebrate a new year. Everyone gets together with family close by and maybe far away to watch fireworks, play games, and enjoy each other's company.

It's also going to be time for people to make New Year's resolutions that we end up forgetting about a few weeks into the year. Hopefully everyone had a great 2022 in school and at home.

Here are a few of the students' New Year's resolutions

Matthew: Stop drinking as much

Aidan: Get in better shape.

Charlie: Workout and try to get a car

Ernesto A: Nothing. I am not resolving on anything.

Ava: Get more exercise. ♡

EVERYBODY HAS A STORY-CHERI JAMESON

Everyone has a story... Oh, how true this statement really is. Life is a very twisted path that always seems to be going the exact opposite way that things are expected to go. It is important to realize that everyone goes through things, both good and bad, and we grow and learn these things by talking to people, commiserating, and gaining empathy.

For the purpose of this column, I had the absolute pleasure of interviewing someone very close to me, my aunt Cheri Jameson. I was able to ask her some questions, and here are her answers.

Q: Where do you live?

A: I live in Mins, Utah

Q: Do you have a job?

A: I haven't worked at a job in many years.

Q: What advice would you give to teens?

A: The advice I would give teens would be you're only young once, enjoy it, and make sure you have some fun.

Q: What is the most important advice you have ever been given?

A: Start putting money in a retirement account beginning with your very first job.

Q: What is your favorite food and drink?

A: My favorite food is Alaskan King crab, and my favorite drink is Ginger Ale.

Q: Best experience in your life?

A: Cruise around the Baltic through Scandinavia .

Q: What kind of schooling do you have?

A: College.

Q: Favorite thing to do for fun?

A: I like spending time with the people I love I love to travel, and I love to play with my dogs.

Q: Would you say your life went as planned?

A: Life is full of surprises. Most of them are good. You just never know what is going to happen.

Living in a small, rural area like Snake Valley, sometimes it is hard to remember that there is a whole world outside of this little place. That is why I think it is important to ask people about their personal experiences and to get to know people from all over. Because... everyone has a story! ♡

BY LARISSA CROUCH

SENIOR SPOTLIGHT: YUDNELY AVELAR

For this quarter's Senior Spotlight I chose to interview my friend Yudnely Avelar. I always have a lot of fun talking with her, but this time she just had a lot of really good advice as well.. So now you can see what Yudnely had to say to my questions.

Q. What is the best part about being a senior?

A. The best part of being a senior is probably... good question... getting to experience new things and stress on a new level.

Q. Where do you want to go to college?

A. I would love to go to the University of Utah. Hopefully I get in.

Q. What do you want to major in?

A. I'm thinking about computer science or business, but it might change.

Q. If you could be any animal what would you be, and what would your name be?

A. I would like to be a cat or an arctic fox!! And I would want to be called Smokey.

Q. List some people you would like to give advice to, and what is it?

A. Ernesto A, Diego, Larissa, Luis, and you. The advice would be that life will get harder but make sure to never give up because there will be an amazing prize at the end. You got this!! Keep your smile!!

I had so much fun with Yudnely and I know I (along with a lot of people) will be REALLY sad to see her leave when she graduates in May. But I'm also so excited for her future and hope she gets into The University of Utah! ♡

TEACHER FEATURE: TERESA CONRAD

EskDale High School is blessed with some amazing teachers, and for this quarter's Featured Teacher column, I chose to interview Teresa Conrad, whose classes this year include all of the math classes (grades 7-12), World History, and American History.

Q: How long have you been teaching?

A: "More than 40 years."

Q: When did you want to start teaching?

A: "When I first had the opportunity; I guess when I first got back to EskDale after college."

Q: Did you ever want to quit teaching?

A: "Eventually someday I will retire."

Q: Since you teach in a smaller school have you ever wondered what it would be like to teach in a bigger school?

A: "Yeah, I wonder what it would be like. I do know people that have taught or teach in bigger schools."

Q: What is the best part of teaching?

A: "Being with students that want to learn. It is especially nice when they want to learn."

Q: What is the worst part of teaching?

A: "Sometimes all the paperwork you have to fill out; the paperwork for all types of stuff."

Q: What do you like to do when you are not teaching?

A: "Photography. I like hiking and I love reading."

Q: Where did you start teaching?

A: "[I] taught at EskDale when it was private, all the way to [when it became] a public school."

Q: Why did you start teaching?

A: "I thought it sounded like a job I would like."

Q: Do you have a favorite topic that you like to teach?

A: "No, I teach lots of things. I like all of the subjects I teach."

Q: What do you enjoy about Ancient History?

A: "Architecture is an interesting thing. It is one of the main tools of ancient history."

Thanks for answering my questions. I can say as a student of Teresa's that I really like how in-depth her lectures and lessons can be. I appreciate her enthusiasm in the subjects she teaches. We are lucky and thankful to have Teresa at EskDale High School. ♡

ASK SANTA

Santa recently stopped by to answer anonymous questions some of our students sent him. Check out the result.

Q: Do you pay your workers and, if so, how much?

A: Why yes of course! Mrs. Claus makes cookies, although for some reason there's always someone who gets their cookie taken, I don't know why. Anyways.. those cookies are always scrumptious... or so I've been told.

Q: Where do you live? In the North Pole?

A: No, I live in China. Check the tag on your clothes.

Q: Santa... Where is my brother's Trust hoodie?

A: I'm sorry, my darling, I don't know what that is. Your brother's hoodie?

Q: Santa, do you give yourself presents on Christmas?

A: Yes.

Q: Why do you say "ho ho ho"?

A: Well it's a deep laugh that comes from belly and shows people that I am excited and happy. ◇

CHRISTMAS TREES AROUND THE WORLD

Have you ever wondered why we put up Christmas trees? The Romans put them up to represent their thanks to the God of Saturn for the great harvest to come. They also covered their houses with tree branches to keep devils and ghosts and illness away.

Germans migrated to Canada in the 1700s and brought holiday traditions with them such as the gingerbread house, cookies, and the pine tree decoration.

Mexico's tradition was they would gather shrubs and decorate them as seasonal Christmas trees.

Great Britain's traditional tree was the Norway spruce tree; it was used to decorate the homes of Britain.

Greenland had to import trees because the pine trees don't grow that far north. Then there are decorative bright ornaments and candles. Guatemalan tradition was that children decorate the trees with them on Christmas, and then on New Year the parents and children exchange gifts. Brazilian tradition was that they don't get snow, so they put cotton on the trees to represent snow. ◇

A Holiday Memory

My favorite memory of Christmas was when I was five my family played a joke on me that Santa never came so I went to do chores like feeding the pigs, dogs, and watering all the animals. I saw presents scattered all over the place, so I ran all over to get them. It was fun, but then it got too cold so we went back inside and had hot chocolate and a good dinner with meatloaf. It was good food. Christmas is good for spending time with your family. ◇

THE ORIGIN OF THE STAR ON THE TREE- a Holiday Legend

Once upon a time, the sky was pitch black and covered in dark clouds, day and night. The people fell into a great depression. No one was happy. They spent every day doing the same thing and spent the night inside their homes sleeping.

One night a boy named Nick left his house in the middle of the night. He was trying to find something that could make the people happy. He traveled for weeks going up the unclimbable mountain to see if at the top was the thing he needed.

Soon the snow started to fall, but Nick kept on going toward the top. On December 24th in the evening, he reached the top. There, he saw a star trapped in a cage guarded by a man whose flesh was seemingly rotten bark, his clothes made out of dead animal skins, and his eyes blood red.

The strange man turned around seeing Nick.

"Hello my name is Black Shadow, the King of Night," the man said with a scary smile.

"Are you the one making everyone in my hometown sad?" Nick questioned, a little scared.

"Yes I am," Shadow smirked, "and freeing this star is the only way to undo my spell, but ... no one is going to release it!"

"But I must succeed in my mission!" Nick exclaimed tearfully.

"The only way I will release it is if you can give me something no one has ever given me before." Shadow proclaimed boldly.

After a thoughtful moment, Nick had a sudden, brilliant realization of something that Black Shadow probably never had been given: a hug. Nick bravely walked over and gave the dumbfounded Shadow a hug. Shadow felt so warmed and happy from the unexpected gift, he released the star and gave it to Nick. Then Black Shadow disappeared into the night. Nick started to make the long journey home.

When it was midnight, Nick and the star arrived home, and the star flew through town before Nick, landing on a giant evergreen tree in the center of Nick's town. The glow from the star cleared away all the dark clouds that had burdened the town for so long. Its glow was seen for 1000s of miles.

It brightened the people's hearts: Black Shadow's curse was broken. Since that day, people put a bright star on their tree to commemorate the star's glow bringing them happiness and light again. ◇

Six word summaries

So it is finally December. In our school, we like to call this month "Do good December," and I love it every year. I love to make everyone else feel a little better about themselves, along with uplifting even myself. I think in these hard times where poor mental health is such a common thing, we need to remember and celebrate that everyone is absolutely great in their own special way. Because of this, I have decided to do a six word summary of how every student is so special.

- Adolfo – I'll always be there for you
- Aidan – Full of every kind of information
- Alexa – Super kind and always super goofy
