Morehead-Cain Scholarship

We seek students who embody our four pillars: leadership, character, scholarship, and physical vigor. But what do those words actually mean, and how do you know that Morehead-Cain is a right fit for you?

Leadership: You initiate. You get things done. You influence, energize, and inspire others to work together to make an impact. It's more than titles held or roles played. For you, leadership is about courage and action.

Character: Courage, humility, and integrity. Courage, humility, integrity, maturity, perseverance, self-awareness, generosity, and empathy—these are the core values of the Morehead-Cain community. You embrace the fact that you are growing and learning.

Scholarship: You live for opportunities to learn. You thrive in an academically rigorous environment, yet are able to contribute to your community in other ways. You're ready to take full advantage of UNC's academic excellence.

Physical Vigor: You have demonstrated a sustained commitment to fitness and wellness.

Be Bold Scholarship

At Bold.org, we believe that the world will be shaped by the bold—the fighters, the risk-takers, the earnest overachievers who won't take no for an answer—the ones who know that a mountain is climbed a step at a time.

The "Be Bold" Scholarship is a no-essay scholarship that will be awarded to the applicant with the boldest profile. It takes less than 2 minutes to apply.

To us, boldest does not mean "best", or "most accomplished".

Being bold means being:

- Earnest
- Determined
- Moving

The scholarship will be awarded to the student whose profile is most bold, according to these characteristics.

American Rocketry Challenge

The American Rocketry Challenge is the world's largest rocket contest with nearly 5,000 students nationwide competing each year. The contest gives middle and high school students the opportunity to design, build and launch model rockets and hands-on experience solving engineering problems. ARC is organized by the Aerospace Industries Association and the National Association of Rocketry with the support of over a dozen aerospace company sponsors and partnerships with organizations including NASA and the Federal Aviation Administration. The annual challenge is the aerospace industry's flagship program designed to encourage students to pursue academic and career opportunities in science, technology, engineering, and math.

Americanism Essay Contest

FRA sponsors an annual essay contest to promote the spirit of Americanism and patriotism among our country's youth. FRA's Americanism Essay Contest is open to all students, grades 7 through 12, including those who are home-schooled. Students are invited to submit a 350-word essay through an FRA member or local FRA branch before the December 1st deadline. Local winners are forwarded for competition at the regional level and regional winners compete for national prizes. The grand national winner receives $1,500. Other winners receive $1,000 for first place, $750 for second place, and $500 for third place. Each national winner will receive an attractive plaque citing his/her achievement, and every entrant judged at the national level receives a certificate of recognition. Prizes may be awarded to students winning at local and regional levels of competition.

William B. Ruggles Journalism Scholarship

The William B. Ruggles Journalism Scholarship honors the esteemed Texas journalist who coined the phrase “Right to Work” and contributed greatly to the movement’s advancement. One $2,000 scholarship is awarded annually to the student who exemplifies the dedication to the Right to Work principles and high journalistic standards of the late Mr. Ruggles.

WHO MAY APPLY FOR THE WILLIAM B. RUGGLES JOURNALISM SCHOLARSHIP?

Individuals seeking to attend or individuals attending a United States institution of higher learning (undergraduate or graduate) who have demonstrated journalistic skills or major in journalism may apply.

(National Institute for Labor Relations Research and The National Right to Work Committee officers, directors, and employees, Selection Review Committee Members, and their families are not eligible.)

OUR JOURNALISM SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION, SELECTION, AND AWARD PROCESS:

1. Students submit completed applications along with original 500 to 700-word essays, a copy of the most recent transcript or acceptance letter, and a photo.
2. Institute staff choose the top essays and submit them to the Selection Review Committee members. (Any personal identifying information is redacted before submission to the Selection Review Committee.)
3. Selection Review Committee members, who are three or more independent educators and Institute representatives, review essays blind, nominate and rank no more than three essays, and submit them to the Institute’s Board of Directors.
4. The Board receives the nominees, considers the Selection Review Committee and Institute staff’s recommendations, and votes at its annual meeting (typically held in April) to either approve the highest ranked nominee, make a different selection, or decide not to award a scholarship.
5. Institute staff notify and publicly announce the chosen Winner.
6. Institute pays the awarded scholarship directly to the institution of higher learning the award recipient attends.
7. The winner (or the school on the winner’s behalf) submits to the Institute a copy of the official transcript at the end of the academic year.

American Council of the Blind
Together for a bright future

The American Council of the Blind's (ACB) Scholarship Program was established in 1982. The American Council of the Blind (ACB) in partnership with other organizations and individuals, offers educational scholarships ranging from $2,000 to $7,500 for entering freshman, undergraduate and graduate students, and those attending technical college.

This program awards students with scholarships to help with post-secondary education financial needs such as tuition, fees, room and board and other additional costs associated with assistive technology.

To be eligible for a scholarship, applicants need to be legally blind, maintain a 3.0 GPA to be eligible for most scholarships, be a full-time student or a part-time student who works at least 32 hours per week, and be involved in their school and local community. Scholarships are awarded to students who attend post-secondary institutions in the United States.

AMS Freshman
Undergraduate Scholarship

American Meteorological Society

The American Meteorological Society is pleased to announce the AMS First-Year Undergraduate Scholarship program, open to all high school students and designed to encourage study in the atmospheric and related sciences. Serving as a unique example of various sectors of our field joining together to support young, talented minds, the scholarships are being sponsored by partners in industry, as well as through named scholarships either established by an AMS member or in memory of someone. The sponsors of these scholarships have all recognized the importance in encouraging young people to enter into the atmospheric and related sciences and thus have made generous contributions in support of the AMS First-Year Undergraduate Scholarship Program.

The Society encourages applications from women, minorities, and disabled students, traditionally underrepresented in the atmospheric and related oceanic and hydrologic sciences.

Eligibility Requirements

To be eligible to apply for this scholarship:

- Applicants must be U.S. citizens or hold permanent resident status.

Breaking New Ground
Scholarship

At Kisner Law, we believe in the power of education and taking control of your future, no matter where you start. This is especially true for students who are the first in their families to pursue a college degree. Kisner Law is proud to support college students who are forging bold paths toward a brighter future. Our biannual Breaking New Ground Scholarship awards $1,500 each semester to a first-generation college student who exemplifies academic excellence, demonstrates a strong work ethic, and shares a passion for business, transportation, or liberal arts and sciences.

If you're ready to break new ground—in your family, your field of study, and your future — we invite you to apply.

Applicant Qualifications

Before applying, students should make sure they meet the following qualifications.

An applicant must:

- Be a first-generation college student
- Have a proven record of maintaining a job while in high school
- Be committed to pursuing a degree at a two- or four-year college or university
- Be at least 17 years of age
- Be a citizen or permanent resident of the U.S.

This scholarship is intended to award students who demonstrate excellence in the classroom, community, and on their campus. Applicants should be interested in pursuing a career in business, transportation, or liberal arts and sciences.

Club for the Future
Scholarship

AIAA and Club for the Future’s Resilient Student Scholarship was created in 2023 to support students interested in pursuing a degree in aerospace. This scholarship is specifically designed to empower and inspire students who have faced unique challenges, such as disabilities, difficult socioeconomic circumstances, or being the first in their family to attend college.

Made possible by a collaboration with Club for the Future whose mission is to inspire future generations to pursue careers in STEM and to help invent the future of life in space. One $10,000 scholarship will be awarded to a graduating high school senior who is enrolling in a STEM program at a college, university, or 2-year technical institution. The winner will also receive a mentor from AIAA’s professional members to help guide the student to achieve a career in aerospace.

Eligibility Requirements

- Currently enrolled high school senior intending to pursue a STEM degree at a college, university, or technical institution.
- Must be attending a U.S. institution in the fall
- Should demonstrate financial need

Application Documents

- Transcript or most recent report card showing your G.P.A. out of a 4.0 scale
- Brief description of your interest and experience with STEM subjects and a short (500 word) personal essay.
- Letter of recommendation from teachers, counselors, or professional references.

Scholarships for Military Children

The Scholarships for Military Children Program was created to recognize military families' contributions to the fighting force's readiness and to celebrate the commissary's role in the military family community.

The application period for the 2026-2027 academic year will open on December 10, 2025 and close on February 11, 2026. Recipients will be notified of their status by mail on or about May 15, 2026. Due to the volume of applications, non-recipients are not notified.

The Scholarships for Military Children Program is designed to award scholarships annually at each commissary operated by the Defense Commissary Agency worldwide, with funding provided through generous contributions.

For the 2026 2027 academic year, 500 scholarships valued at $2,000 each will be awarded. At least one recipient will be selected at every commissary location where qualified applications are received. Additional awards are allocated on a prorated basis, meaning commissaries with larger applicant pools may have more than one recipient.

Who Can Apply?

The Scholarships for Military Children program is open to unmarried military dependent children under the age 23 who possess a valid Uniformed Services Identification (USID) card. In addition, a student's parent(s)/sponsor(s) must be one of the following: active duty, reserve/guard, deceased, or retired from the Army, Marine Corps, Navy, Air Force, Coast Guard, or Space Force.

Life Lessons Scholarship Program

Life Happens.
A NAIFA Community

A college education is already a major financial challenge for most American families, but it becomes infinitely more difficult for a student when a parent dies, leaving little or no life insurance.

Life insurance is an important financial safety net that parents can leave their families. Unfortunately more than 100 million Americans don't have life insurance, and most with coverage have far less than recommended.

	Recognizing the character and perseverance that so many young people show in the face of such adversity, Life Happens sponsors the annual Life Lessons Scholarship Program for college students and college-bound high school seniors. Qualified entrants who submit essays or videos about how the death of a parent impacted their lives are eligible for scholarship money. Over $3.7 million dollars in college scholarships have been awarded over the years. Eligibility Requirements Applicants must meet all of the following eligibility requirements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Between 17-24 years of age ● Have experienced the death of a parent or legal guardian ● Will be attending college, university or trade school in the US or Puerto Rico in the upcoming fall semester ● Pursuing an undergraduate or graduate degree ● Legal resident of the United States or Puerto Rico ● No employees or household members employed by The Life and Health Insurance Foundation or its affiliates ● Have parent's or legal guardian's permission to enter if under age 18
