Golf Scholarship	For many, golf is more than a leisurely pastime. It challenges players, helps them to develop critical thinking skills and gets them outside and moving. It's seemingly a simple game, yet requires focus and technique to truly master the sport. And beyond the game itself, it brings together players from all different backgrounds and walks of life to create a community and network of people who can turn to each other when needed. To celebrate the game of golf and those that play it, the Scholarship for Golfers will award a student that plays the game in any capacity, either for their school or simply as a pastime. Students of any educational level are eligible to apply if they play golf in some capacity. To apply, write about your golf journey, including how you started playing, how you continue to play and why golf is important to you.

ExploraVision challenges students to envision and communicate new technology 10 or more years in the future through collaborative brainstorming and research of current science and technology. ExploraVision is a science competition that goes beyond the typical student science competition and into what it takes to bring ideas to reality. A teacher will sponsor and lead his/her students as they work in groups of 2 – 4 to simulate real research and development. A teacher will guide his or her students as they pick a current technology, research it, envision what it might look like in 10 or more years, and describe the development steps, pros & cons, and obstacles. Past winners have envisioned technologies ranging from a hand-held food allergen detector to a new device to help people who have lost limbs regain movement in real time.

National Conscience month Essay 	January 2027 will mark the 8th Annual observance of National Conscience Month. Throughout the month Americans from all walks of life will be imagining new ways to celebrate the benefits of using their Conscience to guide their thoughts, words and deeds. Here's a special opportunity for high school seniors across the nation! You're now invited to participate in a unique and creative way—by writing a short essay about using the Conscience. Think of a real situation in your life—or create an imaginary scenario—in which you allowed (or chose not to allow) your Conscience to guide your thoughts, words and actions. What were the results? Were there benefits? Or unexpected consequences? What did you learn from this experience?
Nuclear Family Scholarship	If you are a student who has had your life shaped significantly by a family member, such as a parent or sibling, we want to hear about it! Our team at The Law Office of David E. Gordon & Elissa M. Coombs is thrilled to offer the 2027 Nuclear Family Scholarship, which allows students to share how a member of their immediate family has shaped them into who they are today. As a law firm that strives to treat each client we help as if they're family, we understand how important the effect of having family in your life can be. That's why we wanted to use this scholarship to get students to think about how their family has shaped them into the person they are today. It is easy to take family for granted, so we hope this scholarship will help students who are going through life-defining experiences in college to reflect on their past relationships and to continue shaping themselves into well-rounded young adults.

Wings Over America Scholarships	Wings Over America Scholarship Foundation annually sponsors a minimum of 50 scholarships to further the postsecondary education of Navy dependents from the aviation community. Scholarships are $5,000 and some are renewable.

	Scholarships may be used for trade school certification, community college or four-year university/college undergraduate study and may be used for tuition and mandatory fees only at an accredited institution. Recipients are selected on the basis of scholastic merit, community service, extra-curricular activities and character. All applicant's personal information is redacted to ensure a blind selection process. If an applicant's tuition and mandatory fees are fully covered by other scholarships from their institution, ROTC, or Post 9/11 Bill/Yellow Ribbon benefits, they are ineligible to receive a scholarship. Students attending service academies are also ineligible. Any spouse or child (natural born, adopted or stepchild) of a member of the U.S. Navy who died while on active duty serving within a U.S. Navy aviation command may qualify regardless of length of service of the deceased sponsor.
Words Create Worlds Scholarship	This scholarship was established to honor Ryan Stripling, an English teacher in Bentonville, Arkansas who passed away from cancer in 2019. Ryan was a fierce believer in young writers and always encouraged them with his motto, “Words create worlds.” The CREATIVE.INSPIRED.HAPPY online writing community is honored to continue Ryan’s legacy by awarding a scholarship to a high school senior who is a promising young writer. This scholarship is open to students pursuing any major, as long as they are interested in continuing to write throughout college. Students must currently be attending a high school within the United States and plan to attend a college or university within the United States. To apply, tell us what you love about writing and how you plan to continue writing while in college.

Life Lessons Scholarship Program Life Happens. A NAIFA Community	A college education is already a major financial challenge for most American families, but it becomes infinitely more difficult for a student when a parent dies, leaving little or no life insurance. Life insurance is an important financial safety net that parents can leave their families. Unfortunately more than 100 million Americans don't have life insurance, and most with coverage have far less than recommended. Recognizing the character and perseverance that so many young people show in the face of such adversity, Life Happens sponsors the annual Life Lessons Scholarship Program for college students and college-bound high school seniors. Qualified entrants who submit essays or videos about how the death of a parent impacted their lives are eligible for scholarship money.

Eglet Law Community Involvement Scholarship	The team at Eglet Law feels fortunate that we regularly get to do work in our community that we are passionate about. Our professional jobs allow us to fight for the rights of people who have been unfairly injured by others who are negligent or malicious. At the end of the day, we feel good about helping innocent injury victims and their families to recover the financial compensation they need and that is their right. Our success with our personal injury law firm has given us opportunities to also help people in our community through outreach, volunteering, and contributions. Many of us have grown up, gone to school, and settled in our community of Las Vegas- and highly value being a part of this community and being able to help make it a better place for all of its members. We have created the Eglet Law Community Involvement Scholarship, to support the education of a student who is committed to helping protect the rights of others and to being involved with their community to help make it a better place for all of its members. We believe that education, along with a passion and drive, is empowering for those who want to be community advocates and to stand up for the rights of others. By investing in the education of a student who wants to promote, and to uphold values and goals similar to our own, we feel that we will be investing in a more positive future.

Unboxing Your Life Scholarship	Sttark is excited to award a $3,000 scholarship to a U.S. high school senior, undergraduate, or graduate student who is willing to open up and unbox their life in a creative 5-minute video. Packaging is enticing–it creates an impression on the customer–but it's the contents of a box that keep people coming back. We know there's much more to you than meets the eye, and your presentation is just a reflection of who you are. If you were a carton or box, what would your packaging say? How would you brand yourself? And, most importantly, what story would your box contain? Show us the contents of your life that make you who you truly are. Video Prompt "This Is Who I Am: Unboxing My Life" On the shelf, the folding carton or box is what first grabs attention, but the unboxing reveals a lot more about the product. The same is true with people. Packaging can promote personality, but contents reveal character and tell a story.
