Board Legal Status

Body corporate-

As provided by Utah law, the Board of Education of Millard School District is a body corporate and has an official seal conformable to its name. A "body corporate" is a public corporation and legal subdivision of the state, vested with the powers and duties of a government entity.

Utah Code § 53G-4-401 (2019)

Political subdivision of the State of Utah-

The Board of Education of Millard School District is a political subdivision of the State of Utah.

Utah Constitution, Article XI, Section 8

Number of school board members-

The Board of Education of Millard School District consists of five members. If the student population of the District hereafter increases to 10,000 or more students, as reported to the State Board of Education in the October 1 student count, the number of members on the Board shall increase to seven members and shall remain at seven members despite subsequent decreases in student population.

Utah Code § 20A-14-202(1) (2022)