MSD: Bloodborne Pathogens and Universal Precautions

The District shall maintain procedures designed to prevent the spread of communicable disease and to protect the health and well-being of students and employees. All employees shall participate in annual instruction on the use of Universal Precautions when dealing with cleanup of blood or body fluids. Employees shall treat all blood and body fluids as if known to be infected with potentially infectious pathogens. Exposure incidents shall be reported to the school administrator or other designated supervisor.

Source: MSD Policy 3110, approved 2023.