MSD: Local Training Cycle and Administrative Responsibility

Millard School District shall continue a local every-other-year training cycle for school personnel on child sexual abuse response and mandatory reporting when approved instructional materials are available and the District can document completion. District administration shall ensure personnel are informed of their duties and shall maintain evidence of compliance. This local cycle is intended to exceed the minimum USBA model interval and may not be used to provide training less frequently than required by current law or this policy.

Source: MSD Policy 4350, approved 2024.