MSD: Access to Students by Outside Entities During School Hours

Schools are educational settings and may not be used by outside governmental or private entities merely as a convenient place to locate, interview, or access students. Any person or entity seeking an interview with a student during school hours shall make the request through the principal or designee. The principal or designee shall determine, under the circumstances and applicable law, whether access is appropriate and how the access shall be handled.

Source: MSD Policy 6430, Persons Authorized to Access Students at School, approved 2024.