Parent Access to District Instructional Material

Definitions—

"Learning material" means textbooks, reading materials, videos, digital materials, websites, online applications or any other material or resource used to deliver or support a student's learning. "Instructional material" means learning material that is adopted and approved by the Board of Education for use in the District. It does not include learning material that is not subject to selection by the Board of Education, such as learning material used in a concurrent enrollment, advanced placement, or international baccalaureate program or class or used in another class with required instructional material that is not subject to selection by the Board of Education.

Utah Code § 53G-4-402(27)(a)(i), (ii) (2026)

Access to Instructional Material—

The instructional material used by the District and the schools in the District shall be made readily accessible and available for parents to view. Parents of students enrolled in the District shall be given notice each year of how they may access and view the District's instructional material. The information on how to access and view the instructional material shall also be posted on the District's website.

Utah Code § 53G-4-402(27)(b) (2026)

Parent Access to Online Course Learning Management Systems—

For purposes of this policy, the following definitions apply:

1. A "learning management system" is a software application for the administration, documentation, tracking, reporting, automation, or delivery of an online course.

2. An "online course" is a course that the District provides to a student over the Internet.

Utah Code § 53G-6-804(1) (2021)

The District shall provide to a parent of any student enrolled in an online course access to the learning management system for the course. The materials and information that the parent shall have access to shall include, at a minimum, the curriculum used for the course and information about the progress and learning of the parent's student, including assessment results. The District shall also provide the student and a student's parent with training or orientation to help them understand how to access the online management system, the online course, and any online tools used to deliver the online course or instruction.

Utah Code § 53G-6-804(2) (2021)

2026 USBA Model Policies, GD - Parent Access to District Instructional Material.	Retained as the controlling model policy text and legal framework.
MSD Policy 5180, Evaluation and Selection of Instructional Materials, approved 2025; MSD Policy 5181, Evaluation and Selection of Library Materials / Instructional Materials Media Selection, approved 2025.	Reviewed for unique Millard value. Local provisions were inserted only where they added implementation value and did not duplicate the USBA model.

Disposition Note

USBA GD was retained as the controlling parent-access-to-instructional-material policy. MSD Policies 5180 and 5181, approved 2025, were reviewed. Their main adoption, selection, sensitive-material, supplemental-material, and library-material procedures were already preserved in Section E. GD-1 was added only to preserve the practical local coordination between parent access, public review, instructional-material selection, and routing of review or challenge requests.
